

Quidhampton community emails sent in April 2020 related to the Covid 19 situation

1 April

Covid -19 App details given of this research project run by Kings College London and villagers invited to join.

2 April

Details of first National Theatre broadcast on YouTube: One Man, Two Governors with James Corden
Contacting milk deliverer: one villager was successful when she wrote a letter. Website was frozen, phones not answered, but a letter resulted in a phone call to her the next day.

3 April

Clapping for carers: this will happen every Thursday

Sainsbury's have dedicated online ordering and delivery slots for vulnerable people. Details given

Poem: The Sun was Warm by Robert Frost

4 April

Frozen food delivered by two Wilton outlets Norma's pantry and Coffee Darling.

Wiltshire Farm Foods now accepting new customers. Details given of all three

5 April

First email Details of QPC meeting on 7 April on zoom. This first zoom meeting is for QPC members only and the newsletter editor/village email communicator.

Second email Safe to swap jigsaws and books? Official advice given.

Iceland delivery slots open to everyone but had been only for elderly and vulnerable

Why not register with Amazon Smile to donate to village hall when you order?

If you are feeling low you can call Jane Taylor of the volunteer group

Third email photo of jigsaw offered free

6 April

First email Full details of emergency village shop, Reeves bread bags and takeaway food deliveries

Second email updated details of the support group and Wiltshire Wellbeing hub

8 April

Anyone need a prescription from Rowlands pharmacy on Friday? Collection available

Cats: as reported by vets cats best kept indoors if you have covid-19 symptoms, and do not pet other people's cats

Groceries bought in error: vegan yoghurt available free

Clap for carers – is it on?

9 April

First email Up-to-date info of village shop (White Horse), bread orders, takeaways

Second email Clapping for carers is definitely every week

Third email Cellar sale of beer White Horse Fri – Sun bring own container

Can you make a rainbow for Nick and Zoe to put in the White Horse windows?

11 April

Clarification of British Veterinary Association's earlier statement: not advising that all cats are kept indoors, only cats from infected households and then only if cat is happy to be kept indoors. Details of statement quoted.

12 April (Sunday)

No beer from White Horse, all sold;
Link to crochet pattern of rainbow

14 April

White Horse takeaway menu latest

16 April

Clapping for carers reminder

Two newsletter deliverers needed for May

20 April

First email useful numbers reminders, including domestic violence helplines.

Second email Joke photo of jigsaw sent by Duncan something to make you smile

21 April

Appeal for material or help with sewing scrubs for carers. Village drop off point.

22 April

First email details of English national ballet and National Theatre productions on YouTube

Second email offer of prescription collection in Wilton the next day; pdf of the police advice (which had been confusing) about when it is reasonable to leave the place where you live with special reference to driving for your daily walk.

Third email: reminder of bread orders deadline and list of the different bread bags available

23 April

Reminder of clapping for carers; details of Salisbury scarecrow competition

24 April

Window sales at The White Horse (Friday and Saturday afternoons); reminder of free service offered by Rachella Michaels qualified counsellor and psychotherapist; self employed? Reference link to good advice from money saving expert.com

26 April

Newsletter: request for birthdays, special thanks etc to be in; Thursday clapping would the three people who spoke to me with ideas please email the details; shopping: Boots provides good internet service, useful for personal items you might not want to ask for from the people who are doing your shopping now.

28 April

First email Details of zoom meditation group starting on 29 April, run by life coach Dave Robson of Fisherman's Reach

Second email One minute's silence for key workers who have died of coronavirus today at 11.00; correction to meditation group date

29 April

Reminder of bread order deadline and payment arrangements