

Quidhampton community emails sent in June 2020 related to the Covid 19 situation

1 June

Spare bread order advertised for sale

3 June

Need to book a slot to visit the household recycling centres from Monday 8 June.
New opening times given

4 June

Correction to the opening times for Salisbury recycling centre

6 June updates and reminders

Facemasks to be compulsory on public transport from Monday 15 June

Mask tree at The White Horse has been restocked. Need to wash masks after wear.

Wiltshire Wellbeing Hub opening hours changing from Sunday 7 June. Email and telephone contacts given.

Foodbanks in need of donations - box outside house in village

7 June

Returning to school: Wilts Council short guide for parents

9 June

Reminder: end of White Horse shop and bread, fish and chips continue, also window sales. Some spare stock for sale.

National Trust and English Heritage: some sites open

10 June

Facemask tree now empty. To be restocked

Facemasks do not replace 2 metre social distancing.

15 June

Facemasks compulsory on public transport

Donations for Trussell Trust box outside 21 Coronation Square

16 June

Facemask tree restocked

19 June

AgeUK Wiltshire taking new customers for lunchtime community hot meal service

AgeUK Wiltshire offer weekly reassurance calls

21 June

Mask tree restocked

White Horse: hoping to announce re-opening soon

Wiltshire registration service Salisbury now registering new births and can arrange notices of civil partnerships and marriages but no date yet for ceremonies

23 June

Hospice appeal – balloon race

Masktree: selling well but when they have gone there will be no more

24 June

Chalke Valley History Festival: talks and activities online

25 June

Notice of re-opening of The White Horse: full details in newsletter and on website

Web reference for government guidance about the latest changes

Reminder that masks must be worn on public transport, and washed after every wear.

Reminder of Trussell Trust donation box on Coronation Square

29 June

Wilts Wellbeing Hub change of hours: closed weekends

Newsletter: will be one in August this year