

Quidhampton community emails sent in July 2020 related to the Covid 19 situation

1 July

Mask tree at White Horse now closed raised £600 divided between Village Hall and Macmillan cancer support. Many thanks to Elizabeth Heeley, Linda Robson and Sandie Smith and generous donors; Irene Kohler of Bemerton has jams and chutneys for sale – order form attached, delivery to Quidhampton

3 July

Update from White Horse: opening times, takeaways etc

4 July

First email Playground open: thanks to councillors and friends, villagers welcome to take cut grass as bedding for pets, attached guidance and rules written by parish council chair must be observed.

Second email one off clap for all carers tomorrow at 17.00

5 July

Final clap for carers; Volunteers urgently needed for the LINK scheme

9 July

First email The White Horse: fish and chips takeaway must be booked in advance, Sunday roasts now two sittings; A Taste of Italy next Thursday and Friday, lunch and evening.

Second email Facemasks available from Still Waters, individually packed, donations of £3 suggested, in aid of Salisbury Hospice; otter at night CCTV footage of an otter in Salisbury High Street.

10 July

Salisbury Cathedral now open for services and visitors, booking necessary; Quidhampton Flower and Garden Show tomorrow: details attached (previously in newsletter)

11 July

£1000 now been raised from facemasks! Taste of Italy some lunchtime tables available, evenings fully booked

12 July

list of winners from Garden Show

13 July

bus service: details from Salisbury Reds of their increased bus service for everyone who has to make essential journeys (not just NHS workers) and request for feedback about any problems.

14 July

Quidhampton's 2020 online art exhibition by 13 village artists <http://www.quidhamptonwiltshire.com/>

18 July

Offered free: large bag of polyester stuffing people have been clearing out their cupboards etc

22 July

Reminder of art exhibition

25 July

First email Face covering reminder and reference to BBC site explaining the details; old electric disability scooter hauled out of river

Second email Community fridge at St Michael's Community centre is open again weekdays except Wednesdays; White Horse reminders opening times, takeaway meals and cheesecakes and desserts now available to order; reminder: all newsletters can be seen on parish council website

26 July

Newsletter: will be short August edition this year, send contributions now; parish council zoom meeting Tuesday 28 July; Salisbury racecourse screening Mamma Mia 14 August; Salisbury Cathedral screening a Harry Potter film 30 August

27 July

Salisbury Museum re-opening next week with no admission charge for a limited period

28 July

Mask advice from village covid group: how to wear masks (do not pull them down to your chin and neck then pull them up again) and how to remove them

29 July

The White Horse: weekly specials, Saturday cream teas and desserts to order

31 July

Salisbury Library : re-opening next week, web reference for details; Salisbury museum and cafe further details of re-opening from 1 August, links and booking recommended.